2022 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

MINNIE MIÑOSO

◆◆ MINNIE ◆◆ THE ◆◆ MIÑOSO ◆◆ CUBAN COMET ◆◆

Chicago White Sox legend Minnie Miñoso, a seven-time Major League Baseball and two-time Negro Leagues All-Star who broke the organization's color barrier as the first Black Hispanic player in 1951, earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Golden Days Era Committee on December 5, 2021. Miñoso received 87.5 percent (14 of 16 possible votes), eclipsing the required 75 percent needed to earn enshrinement in the Class of 2022. He is the 16th person in franchise history elected to the Hall of Fame, with the White Sox serving as the primary team. Often referred to as the "Cuban Comet," Miñoso played 17 seasons in the major leagues (12 with the White Sox), was selected to nine American League All-Star Teams, won three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, was named the 1951 Sporting News Rookie of the Year and finished in the top four of the AL Most Valuable Player voting four times. Miñoso is viewed as the trailblazer, like Jackie Robinson, for a wave of Afro-Latin American and Cuban talent.

THIS IS A TERRIFIC, WELL-DESERVED AND LONG OVERDUE HONOR FOR MINNIE MIÑOSO AND THE MIÑOSO FAMILY. HALL OF FAME INDUCTION IS THE FITTING CAPSTONE TO MINNIE'S AMAZING CAREER IN BASEBALL, A CAREER THAT STARTED IN SEGREGATION AND ULTIMATELY LED TO COOPERSTOWN. ANY DESCRIPTION OF HIS CAREER NOW ENDS WITH THE WORDS, 'HALL OF FAME.' HOW RIGHT AND HOW APPROPRIATE FOR SOMEONE WHO LOVED THE GAME OF BASEBALL WITH EVERY BREATH HE TOOK.

JERRY REINSDORF (WHITE SOX CHAIRMAN)

ROOSTES

IN MEMORIAM

ROLAND HEMOND, 1929-2021

Roland Hemond, a three-time MLB Executive of the Year who served as White Sox general manager from 1970-85, passed away on December 12, 2021 at the age of 92.

Hemond's career spanned 70 years and eight decades (1951-2020) and included stints with the Milwaukee Braves (1952-60), California Angels (1961-70), White Sox (also 2001-07), Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1996-2000, '07-17).

He was named Executive of the Year with the Sox in 1972 and 1983 and the Orioles in 1989, and in 2001 was bestowed the title of "King of Baseball." Hemond served as an advisor to General Manager Ken Williams when the White Sox won the 2005 World Series, ending an 88-year championship drought.

"I believe it's shared by everyone in the baseball world, starting with his time with the Milwaukee Braves, that Roland Hemond touched and influenced more people than any other person in a really positive way," said White Sox Manager Tony La Russa. "For years and years, he's been the most beloved figure in the game. He treated everyone with kindness and respect and they returned it. Roland was a very nice man, but he also had the ability to make tough decisions."

Hemond helped found the Professional Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to longtime scouts in need of special support, and he also is considered the architect of the Arizona Fall League, which was founded in 1992.

In 2011, Hemond's efforts to enhance the game's positive impact on society were recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's Board of Directors as the second recipient of the Buck O'Neill Lifetime Achievement Award, presented to the individual whose efforts broadened the game's appeal and whose character, integrity and dignity is comparable to the late O'Neill.

MARTYL REINSDORF (1936-2021)

Martyl (MAR-teel) Reinsdorf, spouse of Chicago Bulls and White Sox chairman Jerry Reinsdorf, died peacefully on June 28, 2021 at the age of 85 following a long illness and surrounded by family at her home in Paradise Valley, Ariz. She was honored with a moment of silence prior to the White Sox 7-6 victory vs. Minnesota on June 29, 2021, and the club wore a memorial patch on the sleeve of their uniforms.

Reinsdorf was an acclaimed fine arts creator of colorful Cloisonné jewelry who also designed five of the six Bulls NBA Championship rings, was involved with creating the other, and designed the White Sox World Series championship ring in 2005. She also was appreciated semi-anonymously by children throughout the world as "Grandma Martyl," creating and distributing over one million coloring books, crayons, markers and toys to hospitals, orphanages and shelters across the globe.

LaMARR HOYT, 1955-2021

LaMarr Hoyt, who won the American League Cy Young Award with the Chicago White Sox in 1983, passed away on November 29, 2021 in Columbia, S.C. following a lengthy illness. He was 66.

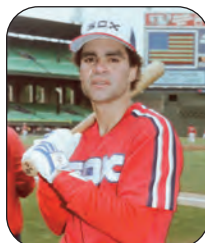

Hoyt spent eight seasons in the major leagues with the White Sox (1979-84) and San Diego (1985-86), going 98-68 with a 3.99 ERA (582

ER/1,311.1 IP) and 48 complete games (eight shutouts) in 244 appearances (172 starts). He recorded a 74-49 record with a 3.92 ERA (410 ER/942.0 IP) and 39 complete games in 178 games (116 starts) with the Sox, all under Hall of Fame manager Tony La Russa.

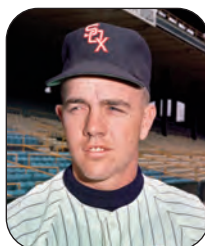

"My first impression of LaMarr was, 'Here is a pitcher.' He had average stuff but amazing command and tremendous confidence, and he never showed fear," said La Russa. "We brought him up to the big leagues in 1979 and nothing bothered him. He had this impressive cool where he believed if he made his pitches, he would get hitters out. He faced teams multiple times in a season but could change up his looks and keep them off balance. What a great competitor."

Hoyt led the AL with 19 victories in 1982, winning his first nine decisions of the season, and became the second pitcher in franchise history to win the Cy Young Award in 1983 when he went 24-10 with a 3.66 ERA (106 ER/260.2 IP), just 31 walks and 11 complete games over 36 starts. He led MLB that season in wins and ranked eighth in IP. Both marks remain the highest totals by a White Sox pitcher since 1983. Hoyt threw a complete game in Game 1 of the 1983 ALCS at Baltimore, allowing five hits with no walks in a 2-1 victory.

Hoyt was traded to San Diego on December 7, 1984 as part of a seven-player deal that brought shortstop Ozzie Guillén to the White Sox. He started and was the winning pitcher for the National League at the 1985 All-Star Game in Minnesota.

Since the inception of Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) in 1990,

THE TEAM'S PHILANTHROPIC GIVING TOTALS $38 MILLION.

In 2021, the White Sox announced cumulative charitable donations of more than $1.8 million. Donations included $637,000 in grants to 30 Chicagoland non-profit organizations through the White Sox Community Fund, a McCormick Foundation (MF) Fund, as well as $137,500 through CWSC to eight agencies providing services throughout the community. CWSC also made donations totaling more than $1 million to support White Sox youth baseball initiatives – including the organization's Amateur City Elite (ACE) and Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) programs – and to fund non-profit organizations, such as the Prostate Cancer Foundation, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum and the University of Chicago Crime Lab.

The White Sox joined the Chicago Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls and Cubs to lend reach and resources to support the Chicago Sports Alliance and its work to find innovative solutions to gun violence in the city.

Working together since its inception in 2017, the Alliance has invested $4 million in data-driven programs informed by the expertise of the University of Chicago Crime Lab. The McCormick Foundation has contributed an additional $1.5 million in matching grants since 2019 – for a total of $5.5 million in funding.

The Chicago Sports Alliance has supported the following:

- Choose to Change: A program targeting youth impacted by violence to provide trauma-informed therapy and wraparound support services. The program has proven to reduce violent crime arrests by 48 percent.
- READI/READI 2.0 in Little Village and Garfield Park: A program combining cognitive behavioral therapy and economic opportunities through community-based organizations to men at the highest risk of experiencing violence. Men who participated in READI are 79 percent less likely to be arrested for a shooting or a homicide. The Alliance's investment in READI has generated great demand for learning from other cities and policymakers. READI leadership was invited to meet with President Biden and his domestic policy council to discuss the work.
- Strategic Decision Support Centers: Spaces within the Chicago Police Department designed to help police officers and analysts integrate crime intelligence, data and technology used to strategize crime reduction in districts experiencing the highest violence rates (i.e., Englewood and Garfield Park).
- University of Chicago Crime Lab: Expert-led research center that partners with civic and community leaders to identify, test and scale programs with the greatest potential to enhance public safety.

FUNDRAISING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Throughout the 2021 season, White Sox fans continued to show their selfless generosity through financial donations and community contributions that lend a hand to those most in need. A snapshot of this resounding support for Chicago White Sox Charities (CWSC) includes:

- Sox Split 50/50, presented by Wintrust, surpassed $1.8 million with half the proceeds going to CWSC.
- CWSC introduced the organization's first-ever virtual Queen of Hearts Raffle, a game of chance made popular among Chicago neighborhoods with record jackpot prizes awarded in community fundraisers. The total progressive jackpot eclipsed $638,000, with the grand prize winner taking home a split of nearly $320,000 – the largest raffle jackpot in CWSC history.
- Beyond the Diamond returned on April 25, presented by Peoples Gas and Wintrust, in a virtual, livestream format, raising more than $200,000 to support CWSC youth baseball initiatives.
- CWSC and NBC Sports Chicago held the first-ever Charities Day, raising thousands of dollars for CWSC.

- The seventh annual CWSC bobblehead fundraising campaign honored Hall of Fame broadcaster Ken "Hawk" Harrelson and raised more than $50,000 in proceeds.
- Major League Baseball Charities, Inc. and CWSC introduced a special sweepstakes and auction to win a VIP experience in Dyersville, Iowa for the MLB at Field of Dreams, presented by GEICO. These initiatives supported the White Sox Amateur City Elite program and raised more than $200,000 in proceeds.
- Further fundraising efforts, including programs such as the Field of Greens Golf Outing, presented by Modelo, Lunch with the Sox, presented by Dik HeathCare, the annual Car Raffle, presented by Mazda of Orland Park and scoreboard messages, among others, generated an additional more than $1 million dollars for CWSC.

LEADING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

The White Sox continued to leverage its role within the community for good, furthering efforts to safeguard the health of all Chicagoans in the wake of COVID-19. The team stepped up to the plate, partnering with the City of Chicago and the Chicago Department of Public Health to introduce the “We Are All One Home Team” and “Join the Team” campaigns. The teams combined efforts to create billboards, social media channels and additional supporting elements to reiterate the importance of the latest public health guidelines. Fans also received complimentary White Sox tickets in exchange for receiving the COVID-19 vaccination at pop-up events held at Guaranteed Rate Field throughout the season.

SERVING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

White Sox Volunteer Corps

Corps: A signature program for the White Sox, the Volunteer Corps was created in 2009 in response to a call for Americans to better their communities through service. The program organizes local outreach events that incorporate support from current and former players, coaches, Southpaw, front office staff and members of the volunteer group as they serve shoulder-to-shoulder to make Chicago a better place to live, work and play.

Sox Serve Week: This week-long community engagement and fundraising campaign has an all-time impact totaling $2 million raised, 65 fundraising events and 66 community activations.

Working in the Schools (WITS): For over a decade, dozens of front office staff members have volunteered their lunch break once a week to read with young students at McClellan Elementary School. WITS midday mentoring students have consistently outpaced non-WITS students in reading level growth.

Community Service Opportunities: The White Sox provided several additional volunteer opportunities in 2021, including a food-packing event at the Greater Chicago Food Depository, a bike build in partnership with Huntington Bank that surprised more than 20 youth from Gads Hill Center with their first bikes, and a Sox Home for the Holidays home renovation with Digs with Dignity that gave a deserving family from South Chicago a complete home makeover for the holiday season.

DIVERSITY BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Game Changers: In its fifth season advocating for diversity and inclusion in sports in 2021, the White Sox reimagined the organization's Game Changers series, presented by Modelo Especial® and Saint Xavier University, to share stories of diverse communities through art and baseball. Showcasing the work of local artists @_murrz, @legomyedo and @asend_one, art installations featured and celebrated the Asian American and Pacific Islander, Black and Latino communities. Since 2016, the Game Changers series has featured leading community voices in panel events and virtual discussions focused on creating meaningful change and empowering diverse community groups. Programming has included, "Latinos Reshaping the Sports Journalism Industry," "The Legacy of Chicago's Negro Leagues," and "A Real Conversation on Challenges and Wins for Women Working in Sports."

Celebrating Diversity and Inclusivity: The White Sox hold numerous multicultural events and special activations to celebrate and engage the community. These efforts have included documentary film screenings of "The Other Boys of Summer," as well as a private showing of "42" with a special appearance from All-Star shortstop Tim Anderson for young athletes in the organization's Amateur City Elite program. The White Sox also have introduced exhibits illustrating the contributions and legacies of Black and Latino players to the national pastime, interactive tailgates and local artist collaborations specifically marketing to African American and Latino fans, family promotions like Domingos Familiares, and theme nights such as Jackie Robinson Day, House Music Night, Cinco de Mayo and Hispanic Heritage Night. The White Sox honored the storied Chicago American Giants by raising a flag at Guaranteed Rate Field on February 13 – the day the Negro Leagues were founded in 1920. Most recently, the White Sox have pioneered new, digital opportunities to engage with fans while at home, including the first-ever Los White Sox Lotería Night, featuring more than 46 special edition cards and boards that showcase iconic moments and important figures in White Sox history.

Additional Initiatives: From philanthropy and outreach in Chicago's underserved communities to supporting conversations about race, representation and culture throughout the game, the White Sox passionately and proudly promote equality and foster positive social change. Fans can learn more by visiting whitesox.com/socialchange.

COMPETING BEYOND THE DIAMOND

Amateur City Elite (ACE): The White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) program in 2007 to reverse the declining interest and participation in baseball among African Americans and to prepare each participant to succeed in life beyond the field. Now heading into its 15th year, ACE was honored as a top four finalist for the 2021 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence.

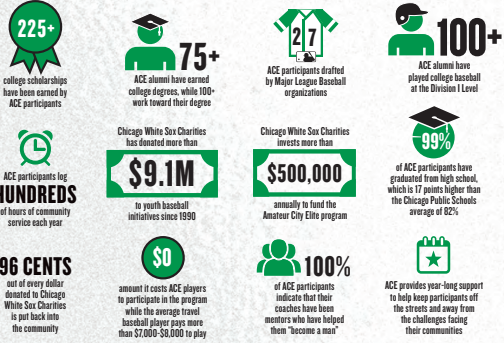

ACE at Field of Dreams: A once-in-a-lifetime experience, ACE 14U players competed in MLB's "A Dream Fulfilled" game prior to the MLB at Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa. In addition to national exposure with scouts and recruiters throughout the game and FS1 broadcast, players captured photos in front of the cornfields, toured the temporary major-league ballpark and movie set and received invaluable mentorship and coaching from former MLB greats. ACE won the contest 8-7.

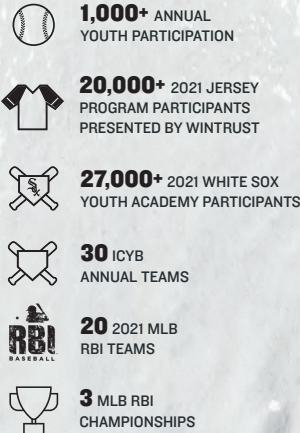

Double Duty Classic: Named after Negro Leagues standout Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, the Double Duty Classic (DDC) is a celebration of the best inner-city high school players in the country. Since 2007, the DDC has highlighted the history/tradition of Negro League Baseball in Chicago.

AMATEUR CITY ELITE BY THE NUMBERS

RBI & Additional Youth Baseball Initiatives: In affiliation with Major League Baseball's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) and the Chicago Park District, the youth outreach program intends to motivate children in and out of the classroom. In 2019, the Chicago White Sox RBI team won the Junior Baseball Division Championship at the 2019 RBI World Series, marking the group's third title since 2016.

YOUTH BASEBALL INITIATIVES

SPECIAL EVENTS | ACTIVATIONS | THEME NIGHTS

During select home games during the 2021 season, the White Sox held theme nights to celebrate Chicago's many diverse community groups and special events honoring the drive and perseverance of those facing extraordinary hardships, including:

A celebration of Hispanic Heritage Night on September 10, featuring a post-game firework show and National Anthem performance from a local Mariachi band. Adult fans received an exclusive Sugar Skull Bobblehead, presented by Modelo.

Pride Night, presented by BMO, returned to the ballpark on September 29 for its third year, offering fans a limited-edition T-shirt designed by LGBTQ+ artist @theninapalomba and a ceremonial first pitch by RuPaul's Drag Race Season 9 winner Shea Couleé.

On September 15, the White Sox held Developmental Disabilities Awareness Night at the ballpark, offering specially priced tickets to fans through various nonprofit organizations.

MLB's Honorary Bat Girl program was introduced in 2009 to raise additional awareness and support for the annual "Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer" initiative championed on Mother's Day. The White Sox proudly welcomed Patrice Stephens, a 21-year breast cancer nurse navigator, to the ballpark on May 2 for a ceremonial first pitch.

The White Sox welcomed three families impacted by childhood cancer to the ballpark on September 1 as part of its recognition of Childhood Cancer Awareness Day. The kids and their families attended batting practice, announced Play Ball! and received a VIP experience in one of the ballpark's Diamond Suites.

On June 2, MLB celebrated the first-ever Lou Gehrig Day to raise awareness and funds for the fight against ALS. To mark the occasion, the White Sox welcomed Mike Snedden and Eric Von Schaumburg, two lifelong fans diagnosed with ALS, to the ballpark for a ceremonial first pitch and Play Ball! recognition.

JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 42nd season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2022, only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to surpass the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership of the Philadelphia A's).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason seven times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2021 when the team captured the American League Central title to reach the postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The Sox also captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008, as well as claiming a wild card berth in 2020. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf's White Sox teams have featured three Most Valuable Player Award winners (Frank Thomas in 1993-94 and Jose Abreu in 2020), two Cy Young Award winners (LaMarr Hoyt in 1983 and Jack McDowell in 1993), four Rookies of the Year (last Abreu in 2014), five Managers of the Year (last Ozzie Guillen in 2005) and two Executives of the Year (Roland Hemond in 1983 and Rick Hahn in 2020).

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received four prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service." In August 2011, Reinsdorf received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace, and in November 2011, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were honored by Commissioner Bud Selig with the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the club's Volunteer Corps. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

In response to President Barack Obama's call to service in 2009, Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the White Sox Volunteer Corps to support the Chicagoland community through service. The Corps, now consisting of staff, players and more than 5,000 fan volunteers, has mobilized to provide more than 55,000 hours of community service during its 13 years of existence, including work renovating Chicago Public Schools, remodeling local Boys & Girls Clubs and donating time at the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago

Bulls Charities. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $38 million to worthy Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving since its inception. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program in 2007. Sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities, ACE provides urban-based and largely minority youth the opportunity to play in a high-quality travel baseball program. In its 15 years, ACE has produced 30 draft selections, while over 230 ACE players have signed scholarships to play college baseball. ACE alumni have won NCAA Championships and have been drafted as high as the first round (fifth pick overall).

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host MLB's Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. He has served on the Commissioner's Executive Council and many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20-plus years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

MEDIA & MISC.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Lincecum in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019, and Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020. Longtime White Sox great Minnie Minoso will be inducted in July 2022 after being elected by an Eras Committee vote last December.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have three surviving children and nine grandchildren.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 42nd season with the White Sox in 2022. Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox, as well as oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations.

The nearly 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012 before being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Reinsdorf in October 2012.

As a member of Major League Baseball's President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with executives across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-plus-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's seven postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008, 2020 and 2021), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last two Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014 and Harold Baines in 2019, and will be in Cooperstown in July 2022 for the induction of "Mr. White Sox," Minnie Minoso.

Pizer served as the lead White Sox contact with Major League Baseball for the Field of Dreams game in Dyersville, Iowa, in August of 2021. Highlighted by Tim Anderson's dramatic walk-off home run, the nationally-televised game against the New York Yankees was the most watched regular-season baseball game in 16 years with 5.9 million viewers.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

Pizer also participated in the development of the Advocate Center, the Bulls training center located next to the United Center and the Fifth Third Arena, the Blackhawks practice facility and community ice center. Pizer is the White Sox chief liaison for the White Sox with the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), the state agency that serves as owner of Guaranteed Rate Field. He is responsible for the overall relationships between the White Sox and their longtime concessionaires, Illinois Sportservice, and Levy Restaurants.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; Local Initiatives Support Corporation/Chicago Board of Advisors; and Near West Side Community Development Corp. The Chicago native has participated in White Sox Volunteer Corps community service events, as well as the club's support of community efforts to develop the Wentworth Gardens and Bronzeville areas near the ballpark. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and four grandchildren.

OFFICERS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Ken Williams begins his 41st season in professional baseball in 2022 and his 10th as executive vice president of the White Sox after being promoted to the position in October 2012. In his current role, Williams has increased the scope and range of his involvement with the club while continuing to maintain oversight and final approval on major baseball decisions. He also attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf where he has been among the leading voices for diversity in the game.

The White Sox have now reached postseason in successive seasons for the first time in franchise history after the 2021 Sox captured the American League Central title by 13.0 games, going 93-69 (.574). The 2021 season marked the fifth trip to the postseason for Williams with the White Sox, joining the division-winning team in 2000, when he served as vice president of player development, the 2005 World Series Champions and the 2008 AL Central division winners, when he was the club's general manager, as well as the 2020 White Sox, who went 35-25 (.583) during the Covid-19 shortened 60-game season, earning an AL Wild Card postseason spot.

Williams is the highest-ranking African American executive for a Major League Baseball team, and at the end of 2022 he will become the longest tenured African American to lead a major sports team in U.S. sports history (surpassing Elgin Baylor of the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers and Ozzie Newsome of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens).

During his time as head of the White Sox Baseball Operations Department, Williams has experienced a Most Valuable Player Award winner (José Abreu in 2020), the Mariano Rivera Reliever of the Year (Liam Hendriks in 2021), a Manager of the Year (Ozzie Guillén in 2005), an Executive of the Year winner (Rick Hahn in 2021), two AL Rookie of the Year winners (Gordon Beckham in 2009 and Abreu in 2014), three Comeback Player of the Year recipients, 12 Silver Slugger honorees and seven Gold Glove Award winners.

Williams spent 12 seasons (2001-12) as the White Sox general manager, winning two division titles with five second-place finishes. The club finished .500 or better nine times, going 1,014-931 (.521) over his 12 seasons, the best winning percentage in franchise history. Williams capped his fifth season as general manager in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in White Sox history and the first since 1917, ending an 88-year drought. The 2005 World Champion White Sox became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

During his tenure as general manager, Williams acquired 171 players in 72 trades involving the major-league roster. His teams included four Cuban players, José Contreras, Orlando Hernández (2005), Alexei Ramírez (2008-15) and Dayan Viciedo (2010-14), and two Japanese players (Iguchi and Shingo Takatsu).

Williams was the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. He has received multiple Trailblazer Awards from the Rainbow PUSH Coalition and The Chicago Urban League for his efforts to promote diversity, and was honored at the McDonald's 365Black Awards as one of the nation's history makers of today and tomorrow.

Williams has spent four-plus decades in baseball in various capacities: player, scout, director of minor league operations, special assistant to the chairman, vice president of player development and general manager. He joined the front office in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. He served as director of minor-league operations from 1995-96 and vice president of player development from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and USA Today.

Active in the organization's community outreach programs, Williams takes part in the annual "Double Duty Classic" at the ballpark, speaking to young amateur baseball players about their role in the history of the sport. Williams supports the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, which has had 30 players drafted and over 200 players sign college scholarships to play baseball since it began in 2007. In 2013, he was named to MLB's Diversity Committee, an 18-member task force given the objective of increasing diversity in the game, particularly among black players.

Williams has spoken publicly about the need and value of diversity in baseball front offices, and also has served on panels alongside such notables as Martin Luther King III, Attalla Shabazz, daughter of Malcolm X, Sharon Robinson, Charles Ogletree, Hank Aaron and Frank Robinson.

Williams has been active in the team's "Becoming A Man" program, an initiative aimed at teaching young, at-risk men how to resolve conflict in a non-violent manner. The BAM program was recognized by President Barack Obama for its positive impact on the fight against urban violence. Williams also met with members of the READI program as part of the Chicago Sports Alliance's efforts to prevent gun violence.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 major-league games.

Born on April 6, 1964, in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams is married to Zoraida Sambolin, a former CNN and local television anchor. Together, she and Williams promote prostate and breast cancer awareness, education and early screening, as well as promoting the importance of Covid-19 testing and vaccination.

In January 2019, the couple teamed with a local restaurant and St. Sabina's Church to offer free meals to workers negatively impacted by the government shutdown. Williams has three sons: Kenny Jr., who is assistant director of player development for the White Sox, Kyle, who played six years in the NFL including with the Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in 2015, and Tyler, who played minor league baseball. Williams also has two step children: Nico and Sofia.

RICK HAHN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Hahn begins his 10th season as White Sox general manager in 2022 with the team aiming to reach the postseason for the third consecutive season after winning the American League Central title in 2021 and claiming a Wild Card berth in 2020.

The 2021 White Sox accomplished a franchise first, reaching the postseason in consecutive seasons. It was the franchise's first division title since 2008 and fifth since 1969.

The 2021 Sox, who spent 152 days in first place including every day after May 7, had four pitchers receive Cy Young Award votes, featured RHP Liam Hendriks, who received the Mariano Rivera AL Relief Pitcher of the Year Award after leading the league in saves, and had eight different first-round draft picks contribute during the course of the 93-win season. SS Tim Anderson, the organization's first-round pick in 2013, Hendriks, RHP Lance Lynn and LHP Carlos Rodón were named to the AL All-Star team.

Hahn was named the 2020 Sporting News Major League Baseball Executive of the Year in a vote by executives across Major League Baseball, joining Roland Hemond (1972) and Bill Vecek (1977) as the only White Sox executives to receive the honor, which was first awarded in 1936.

This offseason the White Sox added RHP Kendall Graveman, RHP Joe Kelly and two-time All-Star INF Josh Harrison, while Hahn also continued the organization's long-standing connection to Cuba, signing international free agents OF Oscar Colas and RHP Norge Vera. Prior to 2020, the Sox acquired Lynn, added free agent Cuban OF Yoelqui Céspedes, and signed Hendriks to a four-year, $54-million contract. The White Sox signed Lynn, who finished third in Cy Young Award voting, to a two-year, $38-million extension with a club option for 2024, in July 2021.

The 2020 White Sox featured the AL Most Valuable Player in Abreu, runner-up for AL Rookie of the Year and Gold Glove-winning CF Luis Robert, three Silver Slugger Award winners in Abreu (1B), Anderson (SS) and OF Eloy Jiménez. Abreu is just the fourth White Sox player (fifth time) to earn MVP honors, joining 2B Nellie Fox (1959), 1B Dick Allen (1972) and 1B Frank Thomas (1993-94).

The White Sox agreed to a contract extension with Robert in January 2020, continuing a long-standing desire to reach agreements with players viewed as core parts of the team's future. The Sox agreed with Jiménez in 2019 and have a history of similar deals with Anderson, LHP Aaron Bummer, LHP José Quintana, LHP Chris Sale, LHP Mark Buehrle, 1B Paul Konerko and many others. The agreements with Jiménez and Robert were noteworthy as each came prior to the player's major-league debut. In November 2019, Hahn signed free agent C Yasmani Grandal to a four-year, $73-million contract, the largest in franchise history.

Hahn has added a number of talented prospects to the organization since 2016, including 3B Yoán Moncada, Baseball America's 2016 Minor League Player of the Year, and RHP Michael Kopech in a trade with the Boston Red Sox, and Giolito from the Washington Nationals in a multiplayer deal. During the 2017 season, Hahn acquired Jiménez, who topped AL rookies with 31 home runs in 2019, and RHP Dylan Cease, 2018 MLB Pipeline Pitcher of the Year, from the Chicago Cubs.

Nine of Hahn's 10 first-round picks as general manager have reached the majors, while eight contributed to the 2021 division championship team. Anderson (2013), Rodón (2014), RHP Carson Fulmer (2015), C Zack Collins (2016), RHP Zack Burdi (2016), 3B Jake Burger (2017), 2B Nick Madrigal (2018), OF Andrew Vaughn (2019) and Garrett Crochet (2020) have already appeared with the White Sox. High school SS Colson Montgomery, taken 22nd overall by the Sox in July 2021, begins this season at Class A.

Under Hahn's direction the White Sox have expanded the baseball operations, analytics, player development and scouting departments, increasing the staff with several new positions. In 2016, Hahn named Chris Getz, a former Sox second baseman, as director of player development. Getz was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Player Development in January 2021. Hahn also promoted Mike Shirley to director of amateur scouting in 2019 and added Hall of Famer Jim Thome to the organization in July 2013, naming the popular former slugger a special assistant. Hahn has traveled to the Dominican Republic multiple times as the White Sox signed several Latin American free agents behind the international scouting of Marco Paddy.

Hahn joined the organization in October 2008 and helped build the 2005 World Series Champion and 2008 postseason teams as assistant general manager to White Sox executive vice president Ken Williams. The Chicago-area native was promoted to senior vice president/general manager in October 2012, and his duties now include oversight of all player personnel matters, coaching staff decisions and the club's player development and scouting operations. During his 12 seasons as vice president/assistant general manager, Hahn worked with Williams on roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif., representing more than 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn is active in the organization's community outreach efforts as he has met with the organization's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball teams and volunteered his time serving meals to families at the Ronald McDonald House in downtown Chicago.

Hahn is a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, the University of Michigan, Harvard Law School, and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jean, have two children: Jacob and Charlie.

OFFICERS

TIM BUZARD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, ADMINISTRATION

Tim Buzard begins his 41st season with the White Sox, the longest tenure of any chief financial officer in MLB. The senior vice president of administration is responsible for the ticket office, accounting, human resources, data processing and communications departments.

Buzard has played a major role in the implementation of MLB's revenue-sharing agreement as well as other league-wide financial and insurance initiatives. In 2020-21, he played a key role in the organization's human resource and financial response to the COVID-19 pandemic, including the franchise's ticketing policies related to the pandemic's impact on limited attendance in 2021 and the shortening of the 2020 season to 60 games played without any fans in attendance. Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of MLB's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing.

He has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign for the White Sox, the development of a human resources department and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. Buzard is a member of the MLB Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Subscribers' Advisory Committee of the MLB Assurance Exchange Society, MLB's captive insurance company.

After joining the franchise in 1981, Buzard served as controller for five years, vice president of finance for 12 and vice president of administration and finance for six. He oversaw the automation of the accounting department and has supervised multiple organization-wide IT upgrade initiatives. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Promoted to senior vice president in 2004, Buzard was instrumental in the operation of the Chicago Bulls/White Sox Training Academy in Lisle, Ill., from 2001-2020. The facility, which offered professional baseball, softball and basketball instruction for kids of all ages up to professional athletes, saw over one half million visitors during its nearly two decades.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox. Buzard was born on September 13, 1955, in Evanston, Ill. He and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin. The family resides in Riverwoods, Ill. The Buzards donate their time as members of the White Sox Volunteer Corps and SHORE Community Services supporting individuals with developmental disabilities.

TERRY SAVARISE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Entering his 42nd season with the Chicago White Sox, as Senior Vice President of Ballpark Operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of Guaranteed Rate Field, including more than 2,000 employees who staff the ballpark on game days.

In response to challenges faced by the sports and entertainment industries due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Savarise has overseen the implementation of protocols for MLB, the NBA and the NHL in order to protect the health and well-being of athletes, front office, facility staffs and fans.

Savarise, who was promoted to senior vice president in 2004, was responsible for the planning and construction of the new ballpark, which opened in 1991. He has overseen the ballpark's many popular renovations and remodeling efforts, including the installation of three new video boards in 2016, construction of the Goose Island seating area in right field in 2019 and new LED field lighting as part of a green initiative in 2020.

Each of the renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field has focused on improving the game experience for fans by creating a more intimate and fun atmosphere. During a 2021 season that began with limited capacity and grew to full capacity, Boyer helped lead the organization to one of the top full capacity attendance averages in the American League, topped only by Boston, Houston and the New York Yankees. Under his leadership, the ballpark welcomed crowds of more than 30,000 fans to every full capacity weekend game in 2021, including nine sold-out games. During Boyer's tenure, the White Sox set a franchise-record attendance with 2,957,111 fans in 2006. ROGER BOSSARD

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

The man responsible for building and maintaining Guaranteed Rate Field's highly regarded playing field is head groundskeeper Roger Bossard, now in his 56th season with the White Sox.

Groundskeeping is a Bossard family tradition, with six members combining for more than 250 years of experience in the business. Roger's grandfather, Emil, served as head groundskeeper with the Cleveland Indians from 1932-68, his uncle, Marshall, was inducted into the MLB Groundskeepers Hall of Fame in 2019, and his father, Gene, was in charge with the White Sox from 1940-83. Roger joined the Sox in 1967 as an assistant to his father before taking over in 1983.

Bossard designed and built the playing fields for Camelback Ranch-Glendale, the White Sox spring training complex that opened in 2009. He also designed and built new playing fields at Wrigley Field (2007 offseason) after performing the same task at the new Busch Stadium in St. Louis (2005), Boston's Fenway Park and Washington's RFK Stadium (2004). Among the highlights of Bossard's résumé, he is a consultant for numerous MLB and NFL teams.

In addition to Guaranteed Rate Field, Bossard has designed and built major-league fields in Arizona, Boston, Detroit, Milwaukee, St. Louis (both old and new Busch Stadium), Seattle and Washington, as well as spring training complexes for Cincinnati, Montreal, the Yankees, St. Louis, Arizona, the White Sox and Dodgers.

In 1984-85, Bossard designed and built the first natural turf soccer fields in Saudi Arabia for the Royal Family, where he continues to serve as a consultant. Nineteen of 30 major-league teams use a patented drainage system that he developed specifically for the opening of Guaranteed Rate Field in 1991. As part of the ballpark's 2000 offseason renovation, he built new bullpens and reconfigured the outfield grass, irrigation and drainage systems.

Bossard and his wife, Geri Lynn, have two children: Brittany and Brandon, who plays in the White Sox minor-league system. The family resides in Lemont, Ill.

HOW THE CENTRAL WAS WON

The White Sox went 93-69 in 2021 under Hall-of-Fame manager Tony La Russa to finish 13.0 games ahead of Cleveland and capture their first American League Central title since 2008 and the fifth division title since 1969. The Sox qualified for the postseason for the 11th time in franchise history and first time ever in back-to-back seasons. The 93 wins were the most for the White Sox since 2005 when they won the World Series after a 99-63 regular season. Their 13.0-game margin of victory over the Indians was the second-largest in franchise history behind the 1983 club (20.0), also managed by La Russa.

VIEW FROM THE TOP

The White Sox were in first place for 152 days in 2021, including every day since 5/7, the third-highest total in franchise history behind the 2005 (183) and 2000 (169) clubs. The Sox moved into first place for good on 5/7, took an 8.0-game lead into the All-Star Break, and their lead was never smaller than 9.0 games after 8/1. They were a season-high 25 games over .500 on 10/2 (93-68) and led the division by as much as 14.0 games, also on 10/2. The White Sox recorded a winning record in all sixth months in 2021 (seven including October) and have posted eight straight winning months dating back to 2020, their longest streak since a nine-month run from June 1993-August 1994. It marked the first time since 1963 that the Sox posted a winning record in all six full months of a season.

Minnie Miñoso, a nine-time All-Star who broke the White Sox color barrier in 1951, will be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame on July 24, 2022

WHITE SOX TIMELINE

PRE-1900

- Nov. 20, 1893 At a meeting at the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for league president. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to local businessman H. H. Drake. A year later, Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.
- Oct. 11, 1899 The American League is formed in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the South Side.

1900-09

- March 21, 1900 An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.
- April 2, 1900 Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.
- April 21, 1900 The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.
- April 22, 1900 The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for their first victory.
- June 9, 1903 The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.
- Oct. 14, 1906 The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the Game 6 finale.
- Jan. 19, 1909 Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later in the year, Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned by the Sox to design a ballpark on the site.
- Oct. 6, 1909 Davis submits his proposed ballpark design to Comiskey for approval.

1910-19

- March 17, 1910 The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.
- July 1, 1910 Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.
- Oct. 15, 1917 Chicago wins its second World Series title by defeating the New York Giants, 4-2.

1920-29

- Sept. 29, 1920 Eight White Sox players are suspended by Charles Comiskey for their part in the 1919 World Series fix.
- Aug. 2, 1921 After two hours of deliberation, the jury in the "Black Sox" trial returns a not-guilty verdict, but later the players are banned for life by Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis.
- April 20, 1927 The expanded Comiskey Park reopens, but the Sox lose to Cleveland, 5-4. The new outfield upper deck accommodates 23,200 additional fans.

1930-39

- Oct. 26, 1931 Charles Comiskey dies at his summer resort in Eagle River, Wis., leaving an estate valued at $1,529,707 to his son, J. Louis.
- July 6, 1933 The first All-Star Game is played at Comiskey Park. The American League wins behind starting pitcher Lefty Gomez.
- July 18, 1939 J. Louis Comiskey dies at the age of 56 at the family's Eagle River, Wis. resort.
- Aug. 14, 1939 The first night game is played in Chicago at Comiskey Park before a crowd of 30,000. The Sox prevail over the Browns, 5-2.

1940-49

- Feb. 29, 1940 A federal judge awards Grace Comiskey, J. Louis' widow, her dower rights and denies the First National Bank of Chicago a petition to seek outside bids to sell the Sox.
- March 4, 1941 Grace Comiskey is elected team president and her daughter, Dorothy Rigney, is appointed secretary.
- July 5, 1947 The AL color barrier is broken at Comiskey Park when 22-year old Larry Doby is sent to pinch-hit for Cleveland.
- Oct. 4, 1948 Chuck Comiskey is appointed vice president of the Sox.

1950-59

- July 11, 1950 The All-Star Game returns to Comiskey Park. The NL wins, 4-3, in 14 innings.
- May 1, 1951 Minnie Miñoso, a native of Havana, Cuba, breaks the White Sox color barrier. In his first plate appearance, Miñoso homers off Vic Raschi of the Yankees at Comiskey Park.
- Dec. 10, 1956 The "grand lady of baseball," Grace Comiskey, dies. Controlling interest in the White Sox is retained by her daughter, Dorothy.
- Dec. 20, 1958 Bill Veech and his partners gain majority control of the White Sox after a lengthy court battle with the Comiskey heirs.
- Sept. 22, 1959 The Sox end a 40-year pennant drought, clinching the AL title at Cleveland.

1960-69

- May 1, 1960 The new scoreboard explodes for the first time when Al Smith hits a two-run homer off Detroit's Jim Bunning in game one of a doubleheader.
- June 10, 1961 Due to failing health and other considerations, Bill Veech sells his White Sox holdings to his former business associate, Arthur Allyn Jr. A year later, Chuck Comiskey sells his minority interest in the team to Allyn.
- 1968-69 To bolster attendance, the White Sox play "home" games at County Stadium in Milwaukee against each AL opponent, going 1-8 in 1968 and 7-4 in 1969.
- 1969 AstroTurf is installed in the Comiskey Park infield. It is replaced with natural grass in 1976.
- Sept. 24, 1969 Arthur Allyn Jr. sells the Sox to his brother, John, ending speculation that the Sox will relocate to Milwaukee.

1970-79

- Dec. 10, 1975 AL owners reverse their position and accept Bill Veech's bid to purchase the White Sox from John Allyn.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

● The White Sox set a major-league record by holding the lead in each of their first 37 games in 2005, breaking the previous mark of 25 straight held by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers. The Sox 37-game streak also tied for the third-longest ever in major-league history, trailing only the 1998 Yankees (48) and 1932 Yankees (40).

1906 WORLD SERIES

WHITE SOX 4, CHICAGO CUBS 2

Recap: The "Hitless Wonders" White Sox defeated the heavily favored Cubs, winners of a major-league record 116 games, in what was billed as the Trolley Car Series ... the Sox batted a league-low .230 during the regular season, were shut out 16 times and hit just seven home runs ... conversely, the Cubs fielded the legendary infield of Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers and Frank Chance, and featured the National League's top pitcher in future Hall-of-Famer Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown ... the Sox pitching staff posted a league-best 32 shutouts, with ace Ed Walsh recording a league-high 10 followed by Doc White and Frank Owen with seven apiece ... despite hitting only .198 in the series, the pitching staff compiled a 1.67 ERA (10 ER/54.0 IP) and allowed only 27 hits (.196 average).

Recap: Nick Altrock outdueled Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown as the White Sox captured the series opener, 2-1 ... a pair of errors by the North Siders led to both Sox runs ... Frank Isbell's RBI single in the sixth inning gave the White Sox a 2-0 lead, but after a wild pitch in the bottom of the frame brought the Cubs within a run, Altrock fired blanks the rest of the way ... the game was played amid snow flurries and freezing temperatures.

Manny Ramírez led off Boston's sixth with a solo homer, his second of the game, and the Red Sox then loaded the bases with no outs off Damaso Marte ... however, Orlando "El Duque" Hernández (3.0 scoreless IP) worked out of the inherited jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon to end the threat ... the Sox added an insurance run in the ninth inning on a suicide squeeze bunt by Juan Uribe, and rookie Bobby Jenks pitched a 1-2-3 ninth for his second save of the series.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 5, ANGELS 2

Notes: Jon Garland pitched a four-hitter, and Paul Konerko hit a two-run homer as the White Sox beat Los Angeles, 5-2, to take a 2-1 lead in the ALCS ... Garland, who had not pitched since 10/1, tossed Chicago's second straight complete game, following Mark Buehrle's five-hitter in Game 2 ... the White Sox scored three runs in the first inning on Jermaine Dye's run-scoring single and Paul Konerko's (3-4, HR, 3 RBI) two-run homer off John Lackey ... Chicago's first four batters combined for eight of the 11 hits ... Orlando Cabrera hit a two-run shot in the sixth, the only blemish on Garland's pitching line.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) ... García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five ... A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan ... Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game ... Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

GAME 5: WHITE SOX 6, ANGELS 3

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS ... José Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 ... The Angels led, 3-2, when Joe Crede hit a leadoff homer in the seventh off Kelvim Escobar ... after Aaron Rowand walked, and A.J. Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run ... Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly ... the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

The White Sox eliminated the Los Angeles Angels in five games to advance to their first World Series since 1959. Mark Buehrle, Jon Garland, Freddy García and José Contreras threw four consecutive complete-game victories to end the series, the first team to accomplish that feat since the 1928 New York Yankees.

2005 WORLD SERIES

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie ... Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead ... Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Wither's bases-loaded walk ... Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game ... the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th ... Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced ... Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 ... Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 ... the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park ... Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris ... Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out ... Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game ... starters Brandon Backe and Freddy García each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP ... the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series ... Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

CONFERENCE AND LEARNING CENTER

Since its opening in 2001, the Conference & Learning Center at Guaranteed Rate Field has been the site of hundreds of conferences and seminars, while also serving as a meeting location for civic and charity functions and as the site for all White Sox press conferences and media events.

The CLC, which features the latest in communication and presentation technology, offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants and on-site parking. The large monument is made of a combination of white bronze and black granite and was designed by the same studio (The Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany) that developed the popular sculptures of Charles Comiskey, Minnie Miñoso, Carlton Fisk, Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Billy Pierce, Harold Baines, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko, which are located on the outfield concourse at U.S. Cellular Field.

As part of the 10-year anniversary of the 2005 World Series title, White Sox fans were again given the opportunity to purchase bricks on the plaza in support of Chicago White Sox Charities. Those bricks were installed in spring 2015.

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its second decade as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-art stadium that seats 13,300 fans (10,300 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Attendance

- The Ranch welcomed 244,820 fans in 2019, the third-largest total attendance in facility history. The complex's 8,442 per-game average in 2019 ranked second in its history, falling just 27 fans per game shy of its all-time record (2016). CR-G also recorded seven sellouts in 2018 (one shy of its record of eight).
- The Ranch has hosted more than 200,000 fans 10 times.
- Largest crowd: 13,721 - 3/23/13, White Sox vs. Dodgers
- Largest season attendance: 257,609 (2017)
- Most sold-out games: 8 (2016)

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inn., 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

Connectivity

- Fans are able to enjoy free public Wi-Fi throughout the stadium by connecting to the CRG_Public network, opening a browser, and following instructions for Wi-Fi powered by Cox.
- White Sox fans from all over the country can share photos and experiences using #SoxSpringTraining, and are encouraged to follow @camelbackranch on Instagram and Twitter for behind-the-scenes access and informational updates.

Photo Spots

- The White Sox have joined the Dodgers in honoring their all-star players along the five-acre river and lake system separating the teams' practice fields. The displays list every all-star player in history position by position for fans to enjoy as they walk to and from the stadium and practice fields.
- Each side of the complex also has a six-foot-tall team logo, perfect for selfies. Inside the stadium, snap a pic with larger-than-life bobbleheads of Frank Thomas and Tommy Lasorda.

Team Buildings

- The Dodgers and White Sox buildings contain more than 118,000 square feet of major/minor league clubhouse space.
- Two of the 12 practice fields (four MLB, eight MiLB) replicate the Dodger and White Sox home ballparks with exact dimensions of Dodger Stadium and Guaranteed Rate Field.
- On the White Sox side, the club in 2020 completed the construction of a new group meeting space and indoor batting cages on the minor-league side of the complex.

New in 2022

- The stadium has added an improved and larger satellite Clubhouse Store location down the left field line of the ballpark. The modern container structure features New Era product, Spring Training-exclusive and White Sox merchandise.
- CBR has moved to a fully cashless atmosphere for all points of sale.
